Parroquia de San Ricardo

August 9, 2020 • Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

19th Sunday of Ordinary Time

"He said, "Come." Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus." Matthew 14:29

When you hear Jesus calling, do you respond immediately and trust that He knows what He's doing? If so, you are walking on water! When we say "yes" to Jesus, we feel the power of His presence in our lives. We can feel the freedom it gives us! Listen to how Jesus is calling you to live the extraordinary life He has intended for you.

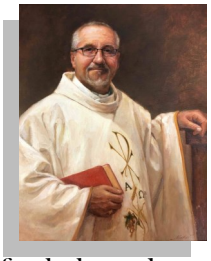
SUNDAY REFLECTIONS



The readings for this week speak of God's saving presence among His people, our need for trusting Faith in our loving and providing God who always keeps us company, and our need for prayer in storms of life.

The first reading tells us of how Elijah the prophet who had defeated the 450 false priests of Baal with the help of just such a trusting Faith in the power of Yahweh, fled to the Lord God for help and strength on Mt Horeb, and encountered Him there in His mercy. In the second reading, Paul laments and mourns over the Jews who, having lost their Faith in Yahweh and His prophets, had rejected their promised Messiah, Jesus. Paul tells us later (11:7-24), that God's plan allowed the Jews to reject Jesus so that a few believers, like Paul, would be free to carry the Good News outside Judaism, evangelizing the Gentiles.

We all need to call Jesus in the storms facing us in the Church and in our lives. Let us approach Jesus with strong Faith in his ability and willing availability to calm the storms in the life of the Church and in our own lives. Church history shows us how Jesus saved his Church from the storms of persecution in the first three centuries, from the storms of heresies in the 5th and 6th centuries, from the storms of moral degradation and the Protestant reformation movement (later resulting in hundreds of denominations), in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, and the storms of sex abuse scandals of the clergy in the twentieth and twenty-first centuries. We need to realize that it is the presence of Jesus which gives us peace even in the wildest storms of life: the storms of anxiety and worries about the future we are suffering now in the ongoing Corona Virus Pandemic (Corvid-19), storms of sorrow, storms of doubt, tension and uncertainty, storms of anger and despair, storms of temptations, and storms in family relationships. But this peace flows only from a personal relationship with God, with Jesus, enhanced through prayer, meditative reading of Scripture and active participation in the Holy Mass and reception of the Sacraments when these are available to us.

Hoy, el Evangelio nos habla de la Transfiguración de Jesucristo en el monte Tabor. Jesús, después de la confesión de Pedro, empezó a mostrar la necesidad de que el Hijo del hombre fuera condenado a muerte, y anunció también su resurrección al tercer día. En este contexto debemos situar el episodio de la Transfiguración de Jesús. Atanasio el Sinaíta escribe que "Él se había revestido con nuestra miserable túnica de piel, hoy se ha puesto el vestido divino, y la luz le ha envuelto como un manto". El mensaje que Jesús transfigurado nos trae son las palabras del Padre: "Éste es mi Hijo amado; escuchadle" (Mc 9,7). Escuchar significa hacer su voluntad, contemplar su persona, imitarlo, poner en práctica sus consejos, tomar nuestra cruz y seguirlo.

Con el fin de evitar equívocos y malas interpretaciones, Jesús "les ordenó que no contaran a nadie lo que habían visto hasta que el Hijo del hombre hubiera resucitado de entre los muertos" (Mc 9,9). Los tres apóstoles contemplan a Jesús transfigurado, signo de su divinidad, pero el Salvador no quiere que lo difundan hasta después de su resurrección, entonces se podrá comprender el alcance de este episodio. Cristo nos habla en el Evangelio y en nuestra oración; podemos repetir entonces las palabras de Pedro: "Maestro, ¡qué bien estamos aquí!" (Mc 9,5), sobre todo después de ir a comulgar.

El prefacio de la misa de hoy nos ofrece un bello resumen de la Transfiguración de Jesús. Dice así: «Porque Cristo, Señor, habiendo anunciado su muerte a los discípulos, reveló su gloria en la montaña sagrada y, teniendo también la Ley y los profetas como testigos, les hizo comprender que la pasión es necesaria para llegar a la gloria de la resurrección». Una lección que los cristianos no debemos olvidar nunca.

SUNDAY REFLECTIONS

Dzisiejsza Ewangelia odsłania dwa oblicza wiary Piotra, a wraz z nim, wiary każdego chrześcijanina. Najpierw widzimy wielką wiarę Piotra. To ona pozwoliła sformułować mu niezwykłą prośbę: „Panie, jeśli to Ty jesteś, każ mi przyjść do siebie po wodzie". Jezus na tę prośbę przystaje i Piotr częściowo realizuje pragnienie związane z tą prośbą: „wyszedł z łodzi i krocząc po wodzie przyszedł do Jezusa". Dlaczego dzieje się coś, co po ludzku jest nie do wykonania? Bo tak jak Jezus Bożą mocą kroczył po jeziorze, tak też mocy tej udzielił Piotrowi, który przyjął ją poprzez wiarę. Ta Piotrowa wiara wynikała z pragnienia bycia przy Jezusie, a nie z pychy pokonywania sił natury. Gdyby taką pychę Jezus dostrzegł w Piotrze, to nie udzieliłby mu swej Boskiej mocy. Jezus bowiem nigdy nie dokonywał cudów dla zaspokojenia własnej czy czyjejś próżności. Nie rzucił się z narożnika świątyni tylko po to, by pokazać sobie i innym swoją wielkość. A do tego przecież kusił Go szatan.

Wielka wiara człowieka wypływa z głębokiej więzi z Jezusem, związana jest z pragnieniem bycia przy Nim. Przy czym wielkość wiary nie wynika nade wszystko z wysiłku duchowego człowieka, ale z ogromu obdarowania łaskami ze strony Boga. Ludzka aktywność polega tu jedynie na szerokim otwarciu umysłu i serce na Boże obdarowanie. I wówczas taka wiara pozwala człowiekowi dokonywać rzeczy niezwykłych, czasem po ludzku wręcz niemożliwych. Ważne jest, by w obliczu wielkiego obdarowania łaskami nie wpaść w pychę, by nie poczuć się lepszym, kimś genialnym, kimś ponad innych.
Równocześnie dzisiejsza Ewangelia pokazuje małość wiary Piotra: „na widok silnego wiatru uląkł się i […] zaczął tonąć". Już był tak blisko, przy samym Jezusie, już tyle przeszedł, a jednak ogarnął go lęk w obliczu silnego wiatru. Jego wielka wiara załamała się. Za chwilę usłyszy ze strony Jezusa wyrzut: „czemu zwątpiłeś, człowiecze małej wiary?"

Podobnie dzieje się w życiu człowieka. Gdy pojawiają się życiowe trudności, przeciwności rodzinne bądź zawodowe, zdrowotne lub ekonomiczne, gdy przeciwny wiatr wieje w twarz, wówczas rodzi się lęk, niepewność, zwątpienie. Wiara bardzo często słabnie. Czy to osłabienie wiary wynika z faktu, że okoliczności życia są naprawdę nie do udźwignięcia, czy też z niewłaściwego nastawienia człowieka? W życiu różnie bywa. W przypadku Piotra silny przeciwny wiatr wiał już wcześniej, a fala miotała łodzią już od dłuższego czasu. Tonięcie Piotra nie wynikało zatem z pojawienia się nowej niesprzyjającej okoliczności, ale ze zmiany jego wewnętrznego nastawienia. Dopóki był wpatrzony w Jezusa, dopóty szedł po falach, mimo wiatru. W momencie, kiedy zapatrzył się w sam wiatr, zaczął tonąć. Dopóki wpatrujemy się w Jezusa – nasza wiara jest niezachwiana, nawet pośród burz. W momencie, gdy tracimy Go sprzed oczu i koncentrujemy się jedynie na naszych życiowych przeciwnościach, toniemy.
Czy Jezus jest obecny przy nas tylko, wówczas, gdy jesteśmy silni w wierze? Nie, On nam towarzyszy stale, nawet, gdy wątpimy, gdy tracimy Go sprzed oczu. Obyśmy tylko w obliczu życiowych przeciwności znów spojrzeli w Jego stronę i zawołali – nawet resztkami sił – jak Piotr: „Panie, ratuj mnie". Obyśmy uchwycili się ręki Jezusa, którą wyciąga w naszą stronę. I jak wielka wiara wynika z wielkiego zawierzenia Jezusowi, tak też trudności życiowe osłabiające naszą wiarę mogą nas na powrót doprowadzić do wielkiego zawierzenia Jezusowi.

Please contact the Parish Office to add or delete a name from this list. Also, contact us if you would like a priest/deacon or minister of care to visit you in the hospital or at your home.

Infant Baptisms
All arrangements should be made at least one month in advance by calling the Parish Offfice. Baptisms take place normally on the 1st (English) 2nd (Polish) & 3rd (Spanish)Sundays of the month. In preparation of the child's baptism, parents must attend a mandatory Parent Preparation Session which both parents must attend. These preparation sessions are held once a month.

Communion for the Sick and Homebound
We ask that you please help us remain informed about parishioners who are hospitalized, homebound or in a nursing home.
Our Ministers of Care will gladly bring Communion to anyone who is sick or homebound at a time that is convenient for you. If you would like to receive Communion at home, please call the Parish Office to make the necessary arrangements.

Confessions
The Sacrament of Reconciliation is offered on Saturdays from 8:30AM to 9:00AM or by appointment whenever desired. Contact the Parish Office.

New Parishioners
Welcome to St. Richard's Parish. Moving into a new parish, like anything new, is always a little uncertain. If you have been seeking a parish community in which to learn, to pray, to join in social activity and to be of service to others, our doors and hearts are open. We are thankful that God has sent you to us, and we welcome you to our parish family of faith. To become a registered member of our parish family we ask that you please come to the Parish Office to register. Registration can also be taken over the phone if that would be more convenient. Please call the Parish Office at 773-585-1221.

Wedding Reminders
Weddings are celebrated at 1:00PM and 2:30PM on Saturday afternoons. No arrangements should be made before first meeting with the parish priest. An appointment may be made by calling the Parish Office at 773-585-1221. According to Archdiocesan policy, arrangements begin at least six months in advance.

YOUR DEACON DAYDREAMS

As I was reading this weekend's gospel from Matthew 14 about the apostles were out in a boat in a storm & the apostles were very much afraid because the boat was being tossed about. "When the disciples saw someone walking on the sea they were terrified. "It is a ghost," they said & they cried out in fear. At once Jesus spoke to them, "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid." Jesus will calm our fears if we only ask.

That fear of water started to remind of the time I almost drowned. I was very young & was only in a 16 inch deep swimming pool. All I had to do to save myself was stand up, but the fear I felt paralyzed me from doing what I needed to do. I still don't know how to swim. I can float. The closest thing to surfing is using my TV remote control searching for channels.

I don't know about you, but I enjoy the old reruns the best, especially the black & white programs from long ago. Most recently I discovered the Johnny Cash Show broadcast from Tennessee. On one program, a young man was making his debut, Neil Diamond who chose to sing a song about a spiritual revival. "Brother Loves Traveling Salvation Show." The basis of the lyrics was written as an old fashioned tent revival. "Put your hands out. Try to touch God and try to touch someone else." Take my advice, put your hands together & form a cross with your thumbs. Pray for you & for me. I don't want to sound like a bro-ken record but we really need to pray. It's the only way we are going to stay close to our Lord & Savior Jesus Christ.

This week, the church celebrates the Feast of St. Lawrence, the patron of deacons & my patron saint & hero. St. Lawrence was martyred on a huge barbecue iron because when ordered to bring the treasures of the church, he brought to the emperor, the poor & sick. As St. Lawrence was being roasted alive, he told the soldiers, turn me over, I am done on this side. St. Lawrence is also the patron of cooks & comedians, but most especially deacons. Say a prayer for all deacons.

Sad to say, but this corona virus has affected all of the world in so many different ways, especially financially, physically & spiritually. I am getting a little concerned that this is becoming a detour on our road to salvation. If you know of anyone who needs a pick me up, I suggest opening your bible & read the scriptures. The bible is a living document. It's definitely not stale or stuffy. There are different Catholic versions that you might enjoy, like the Married Couples Bible with articles about finances, fighting fair, in-laws, you name it. Or the Youth Bible which includes history, maps, background information as well as ways to relay it to your life now. It's alive & kicking Turn on Relevant Radio 950AM or listen online or download their app. It's contagious. You may never switch your station unless you want to hear the traffic or weather report. Also find a prayer buddy. If you live alone, call someone & pray the rosary together online or on the phone or with the Relevant Radio crew. At 3pm, the Divine Mercy chaplet is recited with people calling in their intentions. Get the old fashioned spiritual revival feeling with your prayer. He's available 24-7-365 days a year. So when you think you are sinking as Peter started too " Jesus stretched out his hand & caught Peter, & said to him, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?" See you in church!

Stewardship—The Act of Giving

God has taught us that we cannot love without giving of our time, talent and treasure. If we give ourselves to God and let the Lord use our talents to serve others, we will be amazed by the results. Not only will all our lives be changed but so will the lives of others.
